RUSSELL GREER,

Plaintiff

v.

JOSHUA MOON ET AL,

Defendants

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE DRAFT ATTORNEY PLANNING MEETING REPORT (ATTACHED)

Case No.:
2:24-cv-00421-DBB-JCB

Plaintiff Russell Greer files this motion and says:

Introduction:

The last 90 days have been extremely rough for Plaintiff. Plaintiff has been getting his life back to stable after suffering an eviction in the hot Las Vegas summer and so he hasn't had the tools available to adequately draft and research motions, etc.

On top of that, on October 1st, Plaintiff was informed his father was in the intensive care unit in a Salt Lake City-area hospital and so while Plaintiff had been preparing and researching an APMR and how to draft one, the news of Greer's father being in the ICU threw Greer through an emotional roller coaster and he wasn't able to meet the deadline to file the requested APMR.

Plaintiff apologizes for that and has drafted an APMR and has attached it in EXHIBIT A. He now humbly asks this Court to accept the late filing.

Good Cause Exists to Allow the Late Filing

As stated, 2024 has been one of the weirdest years of Plaintiff's life. Month after month has been nothing, but trauma and tragedy. The tipping point was getting a late night call and being unsure if his parent would live or die. Surely, the Court would understand such need would cause anyone to lose their train of thought.

Further, good cause exists to accept the late filing because it is already drafted and so no additional time would be needed to extend deadlines.

Respectfully
